

Class 6 Review Sheet

1. Which skill does not require you to close the privacy curtain?

2. You should offer a drink before feeding and every _____ bites.
3. You must make sure the patient is in an _____ position before feeding them.
4. Before _____ a patient, you must offer a hand wipe so that they have clean hands.
5. One ounce = _____ cc's (or ml's).
6. Wheelchairs must be _____ anytime you walk away from them to prevent them from rolling.
7. Before helping a patient sit, they must be able to feel the chair behind their _____.
8. When pivoting a patient to sit on the side of the bed, one hand goes under their shoulders, the other hand will go _____ their knees, swinging the patient in a smooth motion.
9. An incontinent patient will be wet _____.
10. Always wipe _____ from the urethra.
11. When replacing the chux under an incontinent patient, remember that _____ rolls toward me, dirty rolls _____.
12. Patients who are incontinent are at risk of _____ and skin infections/irritations.
13. _____ is often the first sign of a UTI in the elderly.
14. Patients that are incontinent need to be cleaned every _____ around the clock.
15. Use a _____ anytime the patient is uncovered or undressed.

1. feeding 2. 2-3 3. upright (or sitting) 4. feeding 5. 30 6. locked 7. knees (or legs) 8. over 9. all the time
10. away 11. clean/away 12. UTI's (urinary tract infections) 13. confusion 14. two hours 15. privacy blanket (or bath blanket)